

Private Dog Training Waiver

Please fill in the check box next to each item before signing to mark that you have read, understood, and agree to the following terms/policies. If you do not agree to the optional photo release at the bottom, please do not fill in this check box. Thank you!

Any purchased packages need to be fully utilized within 8 weeks of the initial session, which allows for a maximum of two rescheduled sessions to be considered valid unless under extenuating circumstances and agreed upon by both trainer and client.

Scheduled sessions missed due to non-attendance without prior notice of at least 48 hours will be marked as "completed" unless under extenuating circumstances mutually understood and agreed to by the trainer and client.

I understand that in the unlikely event that private dog training may involve risks to myself, members of my family or my dog that I assume all risks associated with participation. I will not hold Sky Soldier Dog Training, LLC nor the lead trainer (Brandon Eichholz) responsible for any injury caused solely by my pet.

I agree to comply with the instructions, rules, and decisions of the training instructor (Brandon Eichholz) as it relates to me or my dog's ability to safely complete each training session. I also agree to assume all responsibility for any damage done to property, persons, or other dogs done by me or my dog.

Refunds of packages purchased in full are entirely at the discretion of the owner of Sky Soldier Dog Training, LLC and lead trainer (Brandon Eichholz). No refunds will be allotted for sessions already completed under any circumstances. All other refund requests can be submitted in writing to Brandon@skysoldierdogtraining.com for consideration and will receive a response/decision within 3 business days.

I understand that if my pet(s) exhibits any signs of illness (see Parvo, Rabies, Kennel cough, other notable viral/bacterial infection, or flea/tick presence) that I should immediately halt sessions until my pet has received a clean bill of health from my chosen veterinary health provider. All sessions can then be promptly re-scheduled after my pet has fully recovered and welcomed back to training. If lead trainer notices any concerning behaviors during a session that may lend to one of the ailments listed, he will recommend ending the session immediately and re-scheduling for a later date.

I understand that Sky Soldier Dog Training, LLC does not guarantee the results of training sessions and any 'homework' given to the pet owners is crucial to the success of any training regimen. Sky Soldier Dog Training, LLC cannot reasonably assume the responsibility of work done outside of allotted sessions and therefore it is the responsibility of the owners of the pet to continue working with their pet outside of training sessions to see effective obedience recall and/or behavioral modification.

I understand that Sky Soldier Dog Training, LLC will recommend certain training tools (see climb/raised pet bed, training collar, treats) and I need to be comfortable using these tools to complete training sessions.
